DONCASTER MARRIAGES, 4 MAY, 1557, to DEC., 1784	I

PREFACE.

THE Parish of Doncaster comprises also the hamlets or districts of Balby, Carr House, Elmfield, Hexthorpe, Langthwaite, Tylse, and Wheatley. The Chapelry of Loversall was within the Soke of Doncaster and most of the marriages of Loversall people were celebrated at the Parish Church of Doncaster, though at the time of the Parliamentary Return of 1831 Loversall had a separate set of Registers beginning in 1703. These are said to have been maliciously burnt about February 1844.¹

¹ LOVERSALL REGISTERS.—By permission of the Rev. R. L. B. Oliver, vicar, and Mr. Geo. Simpson, churchwarden (grandson of Mr. G. D. Simpson, churchwarden, who appended the memorandum to the affidavit), we are enabled to give a copy of the particulars preserved at Loversall as to the fate of those Registers:—

The Parish of Rossington completes the list of places within the Soke, but ecclesiastically it was, like Austerfield, Blaxton, and Aukley, in the ancient Archdeaconry of Nottingham. It possesses Registers beginning in 1538.

The Doncaster Registers have literally passed through the fire, and been burned. In their present condition they are truly a memorial of the courage and daring of those who rescued them from the fire, and of the exceeding patience, skill, and devotion of those who had a hand in their restoration.

Any one wishing to study the history of the older church of St. George's, and the record of the fire, should consult "The History and Description of St. George's Church, Doncaster," by the Rev. Canon John Edward Jackson, printed for the Author 1855, from which and other sources the following brief summary has been made, with special reference to the Registers.

It was in the night of Sunday Feb. 27th 1853, soon after midnight, that a strong glare was seen to be issuing from the two easternmost windows of the North Aisle of the Church. It was soon apparent that the Church was on fire, and the fire spread with appalling rapidity.

About two o'clock the Roof of the Nave fell in with an awful crash, and with it also fell, forwards into the Churchyard, the greater part of the West end, thus admitting a strong draught of air which drove the fire Eastward.

About a quarter past two the roof of the South Chancel fell in, the lower part of the Tower then became ignited, and the flames streamed upward toward the belfry door.

About three o'clock an attempt was made to rescue the Parish Registers, and Communion Plate from an iron safe in the Vestry. The Fire-engines were directed to this point, and under torrents of water, in the midst of excessive heat, it was successful.

For this important, but hazardous effort, the Parish is under obligation to Mr. Thomas Waite, then a Member of the Town Council, Mr. James Johnson, Superintendent of the Locomotive department of the Great Northern Railway, and Mr. William Acaster, of Printing-office Street, Land Surveyor.

The greater part of the books, and all the plate were saved, the latter being only slightly discoloured, the Registers much charred and damaged.

At a meeting of Parishioners, held 10th August 1854, it was resolved that inquiry should be made into the possibility of restoring the Registers, and Mr. Charles Jackson was requested to obtain information on the subject, and he with the assistance of Dr. Sykes carefully inspected the Volumes, and a report was made.

Portions of the later Registers were forwarded to London, for the inspection of the Rev. Joseph Hunter, one of the Assistant-Keepers of her Majesty's Records. Mr. Hunter, after experiments, reported that any idea of their being so restored as to be bound up in volumes must be abandoned. Mr. H. Gough, of the British Museum, however, gave as his opinion that whatever amount of damage they had sustained, it would be possible to preserve them effectually by inlaying each leaf on crayon paper so as to show both sides.

This advice seems to have been subsequently carried out by Mr. Gough with the assistance of Mr. Charles Jackson and Mr. Charles White, as appears from a memorandum kindly furnished by Mr. Thomas Anelay the present Steward and Remembrancer to the Corporation of Doncaster.

"The Doncaster Registers were kept in an Iron Safe, inserted in the North Wall of the Vestry.

"On the morning of the fire a gallant effort was made to rescue these valuable documents. To a courageous band we owe their preservation, and had it not been for the thoughtlessness of fixing wooden shelves in the Closet we should not have to deplore the loss or mutilation of a single record.

"The fire put to silence the boast of the 17th May, 1844, 'that means had been adopted to secure the Registers from fire and violence, and that the time-honoured Chest with its iron clasps had been superseded by a more modern invention'. The edges of the leaves were charred or burnt away and the remainder of the pages had become so twisted and contracted and so rigidly compressed that they resisted all ordinary attempts to separate them, but thanks to Mr. Charles Jackson the Registers were placed in the custody of Mr. Charles White, bookseller, by whom (with the assistance of Mr. H. Gough) these important local records were arranged and put together. The restoration is a marvel; the care bestowed must have exceeded all ordinary conception. Mr. Jackson has shown admirable taste, and the parishioners will ever regard his valuable services with unfeigned satisfaction."

The cost of restoring and re-binding the Registers is said to have been two hundred guineas, and their present state considering all they have passed through, is truly marvellous.

The abstracts of Marriages here printed have been made by the Rev. E. K. Blumhardt, Vicar of Wadworth, by the kind permission of the Venerable Follitt G. Sandford, Archdeacon and Vicar of Doncaster, to whom thanks are due for the facilities he has allowed for access to the originals and for permission to print those abstracts. Acknowledgments should also be recorded to Mr. J. Marsden, Verger of St. George's, for valuable assistance both when transcribing the Marriages and during the many subsequent visits necessitated by the careful checking necessary to insure the accuracy so essential in work of this nature and over which no pains have been spared.

Part II will be paged continuously from this volume and bring the Marriages down to June 1837 when General Registration was instituted. It will also contain an Index to both Parts.

MARRIAGES.

Vol. I. The transcript has been made from the certified copy of the Register of Marriages 1557-1749.

The original has been restored, and rebound.

The certified copy contains 150 leaves, being a continuous record of Marriages from 4th May 1557 to 27th February 17 $\frac{4}{5}$ $\frac{9}{10}$. Leaves 121, 122 give memos of gifts of vessels for the altar, and other gifts to the Church.

Vol. II. A splendid volume containing two Register books of Marriages 1750-1784. These are the originals which were greatly damaged by the fire, but have been marvellously restored, the original parchment leaves being reset on strong paper. There are fly-leaves at the beginning and end, the other leaves being numbered in pencil 1-170.

Synopsis of Contents.

Leaf 1-17. The Register of Marriages from 10th April 1750, to 15th March 1754.

Leaf 6a, 7. Give a Terrier, and memoranda of the Communion vessels, the latter are to be found Vol. I, leaves 121, 122.

Leaf 7a-15. Copy of the will of Quinton Kay.

Leaf 16. Collections in Church.

Leaf 17. Extract from the will of Mr. George Hall dated 26th April 1845. With leaf 18 another book begins with entries of Banns and Marriages 15th April 1754 in the form then authorized. These continue to leaf 170, the last entry is dated 22nd December 1784.

Vol. III. This Volume contains the entries of Marriages from 13th January 1785 to 29th October 1804, and is the original book, the leaves of which were very badly damaged by fire and water, but have been wonderfully restored, mounted, and rebound. In its present state it contains, beside fly-leaves, 151 leaves of entries of Marriages, being a continuous record for the period above mentioned.

Vol. IV. Register of Marriages 1804-1812. The original was very badly damaged in the fire, but has been beautifully restored and rebound. It contains, beside fly-leaves, 56 leaves of the original register.

Synopsis of Contents.

Leaf 1. Cover of the old book.

Leaf 2-54. A continuous record of Marriages from 30th October 1804 to 21 December 1812. Leaves 29 and 30 have been transposed in binding.

Leaf 55, 56. Blank leaves of the old book.

The entries have suffered terribly from fire and water, but have been transcribed with the greatest care, and it is certainly due to the very skilful way in which it was restored that there are so few gaps, these are indicated by dots. All doubtful names are marked as such.

Vol. V. This book contains entries of Marriages from 4th January 1813 to 9th May 1825 in the authorized form. It has been very badly burnt at the top and down the back, and has been repaired only, not restored as the other books. The leaves throughout, but specially at the beginning, must be handled with extreme care, as they are loose from the top, and might very easily break away from the binding. The book contains 300 pages with three entries on each.

Vol. VI. This Register, badly damaged by the fire, has been beautifully restored, and rebound. It contains, beside fly-leaves, 201 leaves of entries, each leaf giving six entries in the authorized form from 9th May 1825 to 26th June 1837.

Vol. VII. 1837 to 1848.

Vol. VIII. 1848-1853, was in the drawer of the Vestry Table at the time of the fire and was completely destroyed. A return of the contents had been made previously to the Registrar General's office.

The other volumes carry on the entries to the present time.

ABBREVIATIONS, ETC.

For the General History of Parish Registers the student is referred to the Introduction in the first volume of this Series (Rotherham Marriages, Part I), as also for the method observed in making these abstracts (ibid., p. xi.-xii.). Perhaps it may usefully be repeated that previous to the year 1752 the year was mostly reckoned according to "civil" or ecclesiastical usage as beginning on the Feast of the Annunciation of the B.V.M. ("Lady Day") 25th March, and not as in the historical year, on 1st January. Thus 25 Feb. 1750 is 25 Feb. 1751 according to our reckoning. This is sometimes expressed by a double date, thus 25 Feb. 175^o, or 25 Feb. 1750-1.

After 1753 it is to be assumed that all persons are described in the Register as of Doncaster parish, and bachelor and spinster respectively, unless otherwise stated.
